AQUEDUCT MEETING BEGINS

MONFORT TAKES THE MAIN FEATURE IN A HOT FINISH WITH ROYAL TOURIST.

De Mund Scores Again in Runaway Fashion-Cres sina Improves in Her New Owner's Care-Grandpa Takes a Race.

New York, September 28.—Aqueduct's opening day of fall racing was the reverse of ideal for the sport, as far as weather conditions were concerned. It was dark and threatening, with occasional showers, and a prevailing high wind, which raised such dense volumes of dust while the horses were running that in many instances the near horses were completely shut out from view of the spectators. With the advent of the thoroughbred sport in Oneens, the interpretation and enforcement of the anti-betting laws passed into the hands of District Attorney Darrin, who, it is said, has only a short time to serve in office and has no axes to grind.

Monfort won the $1,000 Aqueduct Handicap at one mile and a sixteenth. The feature of the excellent card, engaging only three starters, Monfort, Royal Tourist and The Squire, produced an interesting struggle in which the result was in doubt to the very last stride and, as far as the spectators were concerned, until the official placings were posted. The Squire secured a flying start. In the early running he seemed to easily have the measure of his two opponents. Later on, when Royal Tourist loomed up and everybody expected the Newcastle colt to hold lis own he suddenly gave way and seemingly left the Whitney candidate to come home alone. He succumbed, however, in turn to Monfort, which had been well served by the exhaustive pacemaking tactics, in the closest finish possible.

The dash for two-year-olds at six and a half furlongs resulted in an easy victory for the favorite. Court Lady, with Gilbert up. Spellbound, the brother to Mesherist and Hatasoo, finished last. Similarly easy successes were achieved by Cressina and Lasata in the closing two races. The former's improvement since coming into Weir's possession was something startling.

An Impression exist in turf circles that the two great Madden colts and Epsom Derby eligibles will soon change owners. Harry Payne Whitney has no horses of his own of Derby pretensions and when Sir Martin and Fayette appear on the English or French turf, they may do so in his colors.

Sheriff Harvey, of Queens County, in an interview said that he would respect the Bischoff, Gaynor and Hoyt Supreme Court decisions in the matter of race track betting at Aqueduct. That is to say, he would not interfere with oral betting. But he had instructed his deputies, and there were eighteen of them on the ground, to arrest any person making cash wagers or recording such transactions.

Licutenant Langan, of the district attorney's office, was at the track in quest of several prominent appearance of the control of the district attorney's office, was at the track in quest of several prominent appearance of the control of the district attorney's office, was at the track in quest of several prominent last Friday, but has been unsuccessful in locating. Several seconts of Pr. Laidlaw's Law and Order League were present.

William Wills, aftorney for the small army of defendants in the eases growing out of the arrests under at the race tracks under the Jockey Club's jurisdiction since the anti-racing crusade was in augurated, stated today that there was no prospect of a termination of the trials until next year. This, inveser, would be no particular hardship to any of the men concerned, for the reason that a defendant in a misdemeanor case does not have to be here, that the trial cun go on without his presence in court. This will be news to those who are contemplating spending the winter in California or elsewhere for that matter.

stable for a stiff price, ran away three miles while at exercise this morning and sustained some slight injuries.

While riding on the train to Bayonne, N. J., on Sunday, Captain Thornbull, chief of the Pinkerton metropolitan race track squad, was struck in the right eye by a rock thrown through the window by some unknown person and injured so badly that it is thought he will lose the entire use of that organ. Thomas H. Williams decided at the last moment to allow docker either to remain behind and fill the riding engagements made for him by A. G. Blakeley for the coming week. Mr. Blakeley will have charge of him and select his mounts for the time being, weef, from the same stable, has also been left behind in care of Tully Coulter, who has first call on him until November 1.

One of the biggest election bets of the year was consummated at the track today. A. B. Hudsonacting as agent for John W. Gates, bet $22,000 against $20,000 on Chanler with Cad Doggett, the former clubhouse commissioner. The latter is now laving 6 to 5 against Hughes with no takers.

Willie Gerdes, who gave the police officers the slip on Friday, returned to town and gave himself up. Archie Dalton, a well-known and wealthy clubhouse commissioner, died this morning after a brief illness diagnosed as typhoid pneumonia.

Bayy C. Johnson says he has no intention of going the chalfornia to see his horses race next winter, but that he will remain in New York and do all his wagering there.

GOOD PROSPECT FOR NEW ORLEANS

Mr. Heaslip and Others Submit Proposals for Leasing Tracks There and Will Probably Succeed.

Louisville, Ky., September 28.—Samuel F, Heasilp and Louis Legarde, who arrived here yesterday from New Orleans, held a conference this afternoon with persons concerned in the management of the Crescent City tracks relative to the holding of a winter meeting in New Orleans. The New Orleans situation was gone over carefully and Mr. Heasilp submitted a proposition to lease the tracks, on behalf of a holding company composed of New Orleans people. Nothing definite, however, developed today. Mr. Heasilp will return to New Orleans tomorrow and be back here next Sunday, when the matter will again be discussed and, in all probability, an agreement will be reached whereby City Park and the Fair Grounds will be turned over to the New Orleans men having for their ahm the bolding of a winter race meeting of about sixty days' duration.

Discussing the matter this afternoon Mr. Heasilp said: "It is the desire of the commercial interests of New Orleans to have a race meeting this winter. We will aim to have the meeting conform to the Locke bill and at the same time have the approbation of the public. With this in view we contemplate forming a holding company to lease the two tracks and run the meeting under our control. It is our as our special winter attraction to bring visitors to our city.

"The beople of New Orleans desire racing because it brings many visitors to the Crescent City annually, I submitted a proposition to those concerned in the Fair Grounds and City Park to lease the tracks on behalf of a holding company consisting of New Orleans business men. The matter has been the racks on behalf of a holding company consisting of New Orleans business men. The matter has been the racks on behalf of a holding company consisting of New Orleans business men. The matter has been the racks on behalf of a holding company consisting of New Orleans thus satisfactorily arranged before an other week goes by.

"The meeting of the satisfactorily arranged before another week goes by."

Talking along the same lines at Cincinnati last Saturday, Mr. Heaslip said: "New Orleans cannot afford to let another southern city step in and kill it as a winter resort. The legislation against betting was deplored, but the measure is not so severe and drastic as the multitude imagine. Patrons of racing will still be able to bet if the law is enforced, only a different mode of wagering will have to replace the bookmaker with his big slate and stand. There are a great many lawyers who believe the law unconstitutional, and that may be tested. But that cuts no figure in our present plans, which I will lay before the men that control the two racing plants."

LAWYERS TO ARGUE ABOUT BOOKMAKING. Recent Gravesend Cases Likely to Furnish the Test Which Has Been Sought.

Which Has Been Sought.

New York, September 28.—Sol Lichtenstein, Tom Shaw, James Beatty, Dick Brown, Jim Murphy and Orlando Jones, who were arrested at Gravesend Friday, appeared before Magistrate Geismar in Brooklyn and were held for examination October 2. It was said by several of the race track attorneys last night that on that day Assistant District Attorney Robert II. Elder and lawyer John B, Stanchfield will argue these cases in open court and that the important point as to just what constitutes "bookmaking" under the new law will be determined.

"It looks as if we could get what we have been after all along," said one of the race track attorneys, "These men are charged with bookmaking and we have been trying to have that question brought before the courts ever since the present law was passed. It is our contention that bookmaking is the display of odds, the acceptance of cash wagers, the recording of them and a settlement after each race. Our clients have simply accepted oral wagers without showing odds and have not recorded bets. We feel sure that their cases will be dismissed."

When these cases came up Mr. Stanchfield asked for an adjournment until next Friday, when he will move for the dismissal of the complaints on the ground that they did not state facts sufficient to charge a crime. He also asked Mr. Elder to promise that he would not take the cases out of the jurisdiction of the magistrate by having them presented to the grand jury. Mr. Elder declined to make such a promise, but said it was probable that the argument would go on without interference by the grand jury. Magistrate Geismar then directed counsel to have their briefs ready for the hearing next Friday. The defendants were released in the sum of $500 cach, which was furnished by Joe Vendig and Orando Jones.

OAKLAND TO GATHER 2.000 HORSES.

San Francisco. Cal. September 28.—Before leaving for the east President Williams of the jockey club ordered that the string of cottage barns known as "millionaires' row" he reserved, with the exception of the assignments already made to J. O. & G. H. Keene, Barney Schreiber, A. B. Spreckels, El Nido Stable and S. C. Hildreth, for the use of eastern turfmen whom he may induce to make the trip to the coast with good stables of horses. President Williams fully expects to fill up all these stables and more too with the eastern contingent. It is estimated that there will be from 1.500 to 2,000 horses in training at Emeryville before the season reaches its height. To accommodate this army of thoroughbreds will tax not only the entire capacity of the stalls under the control of the jockey club, but the hundreds of stalls that have been provided by private enterprise in the vicinity of the track as Well.

Jockey Johnny Daly, who was denied a license here last winter, has recently arrived from the east, where he spent the summer, M. J. Daly, the boy's father, is endeavoring to secure the boy's restoration to favor. Daly has taken on a lot of weight since he last rode.

Former jockey J. Bullman is on the scene, but probably will not attempt to resume riding, as making weight would be a difficult matter for him. His brother George has also decided to abandon the saddle for good.

Trainer W. E. Cotton notified Secretary Treat by whre yesterday that he had disposed of Agnolo, Narrator and Tonic, three of the least desirable of his string, at Scattle. The balance of the stable which he has been training for Col. W. E. Applegate will leave Scattle for Emeryville in the near future.

MORE ARRIVALS AT OAKLAND.

San Francisco, Cal., September 28.—The eastern division of A. B. Spreckels' stable arrived from New York last night and were unloaded at Napa Stock Farm, where Enoch Wishard will "prep" Spreckels' string for the Emergyille campaign. The horses stood the trip well. The strings of T. H. Ryan and J. H. Schreiber have arrived from Seattle.

Jockey Koerner has gone to Los Angeles.

Jockey C. Russell has arrived from Seattle and reported to A. O. Bianchi, his contract employer, who loaned the boy to W. M. Caine for the summer.

Dave Henry will leave Woodlands Farm, in Missouri, Thursday with twenty-four horses. He will train for Barney Schreiber at Emercyille, Herman Brandt will follow him to Emeryville shortly with Jack Atkin and a selected string. John Powers will train Scirciber's Santa Anita stable.

DOUGLAS PARK'S GOOD DAY

FALL MEETING OPENS WITH SATISFACTORY PATRONAGE AND EXCELLENT RACING.

Darknight Defeats Pinkola and Other Cracks in the Frank Fehr Handicap-A Dead Heat in the First Race.

Louisville, Ky., September 28.—Disagreeable weather was partly responsible for causing a decrease in the expected attendance this afternoon at the inauguration of the Douglas Park eighteen-days fall meeting. Enough were on hand, however, to make a representative showing. Speculation by the mutuel and auction pool system was of fair volume and satisfactory to the management. One of the best cards seen in the west for a long time, of which the Frank Fehr Handicap at a mile and seventy yards was the feature, produced keen racing and the finishes were of the closest kind.

The heavy rain of last night did not materially affect the track and to a considerable extent the footing remained good and favored horses with delicate underpinning. Some of the best horses that have met in this section for a long time contested in the handicap and by virtue of his light impost Darknight managed to gain a victory over Pinkola, with Terah crowding the latter closely for second place. The Empiro City Handicap winner was probably best, but was subjected to interference on the stretch turn, which brought about his defeat. Darknight was lucky throughout and under good guidance was always in the lead, with Old Honesty and Lawrence P. Daley alternating in second place for the first three-quarters. During the stretch run the latter pair tired badly, allowing Terah, which had been a distant trailer, to pass them and take third place. Polly Prim, which had been racing in good style on the Canadian tracks, ran poorly and brought up the rear in the field of ten starters.

The opening scramble at three-quarters was reduced by withdrawals to three starters. Wool Sandals being preferred over Al Muller and Halket. The latter, after going a half, dropped out of contention, but Wool Sandals and Al Muller, fighting it out stride for stride, came to the finish so closely aligned that the judges were unable to separate them and made it a dead heat.

ENGLISH BREEDERS MAY REDUCE STUDS.

London, Eng., September 28.—English breeders of race horses are much concerned over the results of Hughes' anti-betting legislation and the transfer to this country of the racing studs of American owners in consequence thereof.

This will have important influence on the operations of English owners, as no fewer than seventy-five of the yearlings to be auctioned at Tattersalls and Keene's while other contingents from Belmont and Keene's while other contingents from Belmont and Keene's while other contingents from Belmont and Keene's understood that owing to these importations several English breeders are delaying the completion of their plans for the coming season, being resolved that if Americans full a good market here they will continue shipping and lower values by raising the supply beyond the demand.

NEW YORK HOPES FOR NEW ORLEANS. -

New York, September 28.—A well-known horseman who had practically made plans to race in California this winter received a letter vesterday from a politician in New Orleans advising him to wait as it looked as if there would be racing in the Grescent City after all. It is declared that many New Orleans business men want to have the tracks re-open and that there is just a chance that the recent anti-betting law may be knocked out.

HAVANA STABLES CAN HOUSE 500 HORSES.

There are accommodations at the Havana track to stable 500 horses, and Messrs. Smith & Perry state that if necessary additional stalls will be erected. Every facility has been made to lessen the difficulties of shipping horses into Cuba, the shipping points being at New Orleans. Tampa, Galveston and New York. All horses will be consigned to the Cuban Racing Association. 33 Cuba Street, Havana. They will be bonded without cost to shipper and feed will be sold by the association at actual cost prices.

NOTES OF THE TURE.

Breeders and horsemen should remember that the limit date for the registration of foals of 1908 is November 1 this year. John E. Madden has shipped to Mose Goldblatt rom New York three horses to race at Douglas ark. One is by Handspring and another is by laudit. from No Park. Plaudit.

Mr. Belmont's trainer, Jack Jovner, said last Sat-urday at Gravesend that he would keep Fair Play in

It is not true that James R. Keene's Maskette is in the English One Thousand Guineas of 1900, as New York cables have it. Maskette is in the Oaks only. Certauly the New York story about Helmet being in next year's Derby is not true.

Santo Gitano. Zelina. Little Joker. Blondy. Legal Form and Christmastide were recent winners at Vancouver. B. C. Jockeys Alarie. W. McIntyre, Lycurgus, Jarret, Riley, Quay. McRae and C. Sullivan are among the boys who rode at the meeting.

Unusual interest has been aroused in the Engl.

Sporting world by the keen struggle among the leading jockeys. Danny Maher, the American rider, reached the century at the Newbury meeting last Saturday afternoon. Higgs, the English jockey, is a close second, with 98.

a close second, with 58.

It would seem as though M. Renkin, minister of justice, intends to snoil racing in Belgium, for a notice has just been issued to the judicial authorities of Brussels calling attention to the illegality of betting on race courses, whether with bookmakers or by the pari-mutuel system.

It is reported that there may be a rearrangement of dates so that there will be no conflict between Jamaica and Pimlico. The Jamaica meeting opens on October 25 and closes on November 4. Pimlico begins on October 24 and ends on November 7. It is possible that one of these tracks will postpone its session, possibly Pimlico.

Dandelion, which bore Sam Hildreth's colors last Saturday at Gravesend in the handican at one mile and a quarter, which fell easily to Master Robert cost the western turfman $4,000. Mr. Hildreth bought the 6-year-old for California racing and he will go west with the other horses of the Hildreth string, some forty-one head, all told.
